

Transmission electron micrograph of the Strava bacteriophage. Phage particles were negatively stained with 1% uranyl acetate and imaged at 120 kV. Morphometric measurements performed in Fiji show an average capsid diameter of 57.76 nm, a tail length of 217.10 nm, and a tail width of 13.93 nm.