

Plaques of Helian. Helian bacteriophages were diluted in phage buffer using a serial dilution protocol. They were allowed to infect the host, Streptomyces coelicolor, and plated with MYM top agar on a DNB plate. The plate was incubated at 30°C for 1-2 days.